MUSIC MISSIONER JOB DESCRIPTION

Introduction

St. Giles is an Anglican church in Rowley Regis and we are open and welcoming to anyone who would join us. We are a friendly and approachable community who are open minded and caring. We are unpretentious, warm and kind in what we do. Our building is important to us and we believe it could offer space at the heart of the community for various activities. This church is like a family and the building is our home; we want to share it! God is at the heart of all we do. And God is for everyone! We want people to come closer to God and to get to know Jesus as Saviour.

Worship is a core activity our church's life and a significant point of our contact for our community. The musical aspect of worship is a vital part of the mission, ministry and vision of the church.

As such the Music Missioner will, in addition to playing music for services (primarily using the the two manual pipe organ but we are open to other possibilities), will work with the Vicar and the PCC to seek to draw new people into the life of the church through music.

Primary Function

The Music Missioner will provides music and accompaniment for scheduled worship services and other activities in support of the music mission and ministry of the church. Having a pivotal role in the musical life of the church, this individual is a strong team player, working under the Vicar and PCC.

Job Specification

This year-round position is salary (no overtime pay) and part time (£4725 per annum). Expectation of attendance is for Sunday worship services, and other special services, including (but not limited to) Christmas and Easter. The work is done cooperatively, with the vicar and PCC. It is also expected that the Music Missioner will initiate a range of activities, using music as a means to engage new people and be involved with existing activities (such as Messy Church).

Person Specification

Essential	Desirable
Experience in church worship, with both organ and other music and hymnody (understanding and familiarity with blended worship preferred).	Ability to communicate well and in a friendly manner with the church leadership, church choir and members of the congregation.
Knowledge of the instrument and keyboard ability sufficient to play hymns, songs, and anthem accompaniments. Ability to sight-read and improvise is desired.	Ability to take direction and work as a team member.
Flexibility to play in blended style services that include all types of worship music.	Willingness to rehearse sufficiently to maintain a high quality of music.
Enthusiasm to imaginatively use Christian music as a means for mission .	Sensitivity and the ability to interact with a variety of people.
Knowledge of basic music theory and ability to perform simple transpositions or harmonisations.	High degree of competence on organ, and the ability to accompany groups and individuals.
Desire to maintain a constant program of self-improvement.

Accountability

The Music Missioner is accountable to the Vicar (the PCC during an interregnum). An annual performance review will be done.

Responsibilities:

- 1) Support the worship at St. Giles through the well-prepared execution of music.
- 2) Facilitate congregational singing and worship through the excellent execution of hymns and other songs.
- 3) The Music Missioner will select appropriate hymns and anthems, and develop the repertoire of the congregation. They will agree their choices with the Vicar, in advance.
- 4) Play for weddings and funerals, as requested (and upon availability), being permitted to receive additional compensation from the parties involved.
- 5) Maintain an accurate account of organ needs and maintenance, and notify the Vicar of any costs.
- 6) Find a substitute for Sundays when not available.
- 7) Be self-motivated and imaginative (with the support of the Vicar and PCC) to try new things and seek to use music as a means for mission.

Current Services

10:15 Sundays Holy Communion

The Music Missioner will play the organ for the 10:15 Holy Communion, including suitable organ music during the administration of communion, prior to and after the service.

10:15 All Age Communion Service (4th Sunday of the month)

The Music Missioner will play music for the 10:15 Holy Communion, including suitable music during the administration of communion, prior to and after the service. We currently have organ music during this service but we are open to alternatives.

Messy Church (1st Sunday of the month at 3pm)

The Music Missioner will teach and lead a suitable song to the families at Messy Church and be actively involved in encouraging families and drawing them into the life of the church.

Festivals and Holy Week

The Music Missioner will play and for the following services: Ash Wednesday, Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, Easter Day, Ascension Day, All Souls, All Saints, Evening Carol Service, Christmas Eve /Midnight and Christmas Day.

Occasional Offices

The Music Missioner will have the right to play for Church Funerals, Marriages and Memorial Services.

For Marriages and other services the Music Missioner may be asked to meet with the family prior to the service to advise and guide the family in their choice of music.

Development

We see music as part of our mission. We hope that the music at St. Giles will draw people into our worshipping life and grow the congregation as part of our Transforming Church Action Plan.

We would also hope that a Music Missioner would try new musical ventures. We have had a choir in the past, and there is enthusiasm for starting a new choir, perhaps in a more informal way to encourage community involvement. To introduce new seasonal Communion settings, congregational responses and new hymns/songs.

Holidays

The Music Missioner will be entitled to six Sundays (and weekday rehearsals) off per calendar year. Holidays may usually not be taken at Christmas or during Holy Week, unless agreed with the Vicar.

Deputies

With the agreement of the Vicar, the Music Missioner may on occasions substitute a deputy to cover their duties. Such deputies must be fully competent, and apart from holidays, will be remunerated by the Music Missioner.

A member of the congregation is also available to deputise on occasion.

Safeguarding Young people and vulnerable adults

The parish operates a comprehensive policy. The Music Missioner will adhere to the parish safeguarding policies and best practice. Enhanced DBS disclosure will be required.

Equal Opportunities

The Church has a commitment to Equal Opportunities and will not discriminate on the grounds of culture (including race and skin colour), ethnic or national origin, nationality (including citizenship), age, gender, sexual orientation, disability, HIV status, social class, marital status, membership of a trade union, or religion.
